3. Reminders

1. Debrief of March 2 Call with EPA

- Steering Committee members shared their interest with EPA for the CAG to review the draft Remedial Investigation Report and provide input. The CAG would like to have a meaningful role in each step of the Superfund process where feasible.
- Fish signage is moving forward and will be in production soon. The CAG is appreciative of being part of the discussion about sign content and locations.

2. April 5 CAG Meeting

- Still need to confirm a meeting location in Queens. Rosemary will follow up with the contact from Cathy Nolan's office.
- Museum of Modern Art PS1 and LaGuardia Community College are other possible meeting location options. The Brooklyn Steel venue is also a potential location for future meetings in Brooklyn.
- Proposed April 5 CAG meeting agenda items:
 - 1) EPA Update on Draft Remedial Investigation Report
 - 2) Discussion with EPA about CAG's Comments on Baseline Ecological Risk Assessment
 - a. Keep discussion on track so meeting does not go past 8:30 p.m.
 - 3) EPA Update on Fish Signage
 - a. EPA should bring sign copies to share with the public
 - 4) New York City Economic Development Corporation Presentation on Dredging
 - a. Willis to follow up with Ed to circulate copy of presentation to Steering Committee for review
 - 5) EPA's Plan for Kosciuszko Bridge and EPA Involvement (if any) with its Planned Demolition

3. Reminders

- Call with EPA scheduled for Wednesday, March 22, 2017, at 11 a.m. ET to confirm discussion topics for the April 5, 2017 CAG meeting.
